ABOUT US

How did we start?

Teana is an innovative Russian cosmetic brand founded in 2007 by Dmitry Stoforandov who is Candidate of Pharmaceutical Sciences and the person behind Teana formulations.

As a child he had been mixing his mother's face creams to create something special. Then after becoming a pharmacist Dmitry brought about 300 unique skincare formulations, new trends and his creative power to cosmetic industry.

The name Teana came up spontaneously. Dmitry was driving along the road inspired by new skincare projects. And so it seemed so obvious: "Come on man this is the right time to create your own brand!" Now guess what car drove past him at that very moment?

AND THAT DECIDED HIM. LAUNCHING FIRST 26 AMPOULED SERUMS LEAD THE WAY TO BIG BEAUTY INDUSTRY. THE PHARMACEUTICAL PACKAGING AND HIGH PERCENTAGE OF BIOACTIVE INGREDIENTS CAPTIVATED CONSUMERS AND IT STILL REMAINS ONE OF OUR BESTSELLERS.

Teana laboratories perfectly shows how one could run a hobby like a business.

AMPOULED SERUMS

Concentrated help for your skin

Ampouled serums have been our company's bestseller for more than 10 years. They are targeted to improve conditions of any skin types. You will definitely find a serum suitable for you from our wide range.

A high concentration of active ingredients

Our years-long experience in pharmaceutical science allows us to create targeted, effective solutions for any skin type or problem.

Mono-dosing

Our single-use ampoules, made of special pharmaceutical glass, eliminate oxidation and guarantee the freshest formulas with maximum active ingredients and minimum preservatives.

More effective skincare

The high concentration of active ingredients delivers a fast, visible result, which lasts longer if serums are used as course treatments. The serums also multiply the effect of creams and masks.

Individual beauty cocktails

For creative minds we suggest trying unique beauty cocktails. You can come up with recipes for your own individual serum mix depending on your skin condition and your goal.

STRESS CONTROL

Neuroactive serums for quick correction of stress dependent skin conditions.

Problem

Stress affects our skin even if we cannot detect it. Temperature swings, environmental pollution, UV light and nervous strain increase the level of oxidative reaction in skin cells and cause chronic inflammation. This can cause premature aging—a poor complexion, dehydration and wrinkles.

Solution

Innovative safe technology for correcting stress-related conditions and restoring the skin through impact on skin neuroreceptors.

All the serums of Stress Control series contain revolutionary active ingredients: Neurophroline™, Mariliance™, Matrixyl® 3000.

Effect

Reduced chronic inflammation.
Improved appearance of any skin type.
Protection from stress and aging.

Who is it for

For those, who are affected by daily stress, which manifests on the skin, as well as for those who undergo any traumatic cosmetic treatments.

Serums can be applied before cream or mask. You can also mix a few drops with your cream or other basic skincare in your palm and apply as usual.

NEUROACTIVE BOOSTERS EXPERT BOOST

A brand new skincare concept

A booster is a supercharger for any skincare treatment. Its powerful action increases the effectiveness of any skincare product, including serums, creams and masks.

Neuroactive action

A brand new technology which acts on the skin's neuroreceptors ensures a quick and long-lasting result.

A "squeezer" for any cosmetics

Our boosters help "squeeze" the maximum benefit out of any skincare product or course of treatments. This happens because boosters push active ingredients deep into the skin, which leads to phenomenal results comparable to beauty salon cosmetology (such as injections or laser rejuvenation).

SENSORY BIOPEPTIDE SKINCARE FIFTH SENSE

Endorphin euphoria for your skin

All the sensory biopeptide skincare range produce happy hormones – endorphins – giving your skin a feeling of joy and calmness, and a healthy glow.

Endorphins

The high-tech ingredient Calmosensine, based on Arg-Tyr biopeptide, releases pro-endorphins into the skin making it look and feel happy and healthy.

Multilamellar structures

Multilamellar structures restore and revitalize the skin as they are physiologically close to the natural lipids of the skin's surface layer. They ensure the deep penetration of the active ingredients and a long-lasting effect.

Signals for cell self-rejuvenation

Special molecules, called matrikines, send signals to the skin cells about a lack of collagen, elastin and hyaluronic acid, boosting their production. The skin becomes more elastic and supple; wrinkles are reduced.

SENSORY PEPTIDE ANTI-AGE SKINCARE PERFECTION

Activating natural skin rejuvenation

These modern cosmetics, combining innovative peptide complexes with anti-age herbal extracts, launch a complex rejuvenation and restoration program in the skin, reducing the visible signs of aging.

Innovative technology

- Biomimetic peptides are an exact analogue of the skin's natural peptides responsible for the targeted activation of specific structural proteins. They turn on the natural "anti-aging mode" in the cells.
- Juvinity™ is a peptide complex, able to slow down cell aging, giving mature cells the properties of younger ones. It prevents the shortening of DNA telomeres – the main reason why cell life cycles are shortened. This complex helps restore the intercellular respiratory chain, which is the basis of energy production. As a result skin cells start renewing themselves, the skin looks younger, fresher and firmer.

Profound rejuvenation

Měiritage™ is an anti-aging complex of herbal extracts which strengthens and restores the intercellular matrix, stimulating the synthesis of hyaluronic acid and collagen and rejuvenating the skin at the cellular level. It reduces wrinkles and pigmentation, smoothing the skin tone.

An alternative to beauty salon treatments and injections

Regular use of the Perfection line gives a visible rejuvenating effect in a short period. The skin becomes firmer and more supple, smooth and velvety, and acquires a healthy glow. The quantity and depth of wrinkles are reduced, and the facial contours are improved.
